

TEAM RED fashion

Comfy party clothes Begone, you torturous fancy outfits of yesteryear. Celeb stylist Brad Goreski has ideas that flatter, feel great, and look really, really fun.

Brad Goreski has styled stars like Rashida Jones and Minka Kelly.

Dressing for the holidays, of course, means rich colors, soft fabrics like velvet, and major sparkle. But you don't need a whole closet full of special stuff in order to feel ready for a party. Pair a daytime piece with a festive one to create a unique, "I never would have thought of that" look. The ribbed sweater and sequin skirt that Courtney is wearing here is a good example: It's a mix of dressy and relaxed, plus the maxi elongates her legs plenty, so she can wear flats! Read on for three more looks you'll want to toast.

“The skirt nips in so my waist looks tiny. Plus I seem taller—I'm 5'2!”

—OUR MODEL-FOR-THE-DAY
COURTNEY QUINN, 24,
WHO BLOGS AT COLORME
COURTNEY.COM

Earrings, $19.90;
express.com.
Sweater, $59.90;
zara.com.
Necklace, $49.50;
anntaylor.com.
Skirt, $268;
ellamoss.com.

LEE CLOWER, HAIR: MIA SANTIAGO AT SHARON DORRAN AT SALLY HERSBERGER SALON, MAKEUP: RACHEL WOOD AT ABTP.COM, BRAD'S HAIR: BIRGITTE FOR RENE FURTERER, BRAD'S MAKEUP: FRANK GUYTON AT KENBARBOZA.COM, PROP STYLIST: WENDY SCHELAH AT HALLEY RESOURCES.